by

WALTER S. WOODS

DEPUTY MINISTER,
DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS

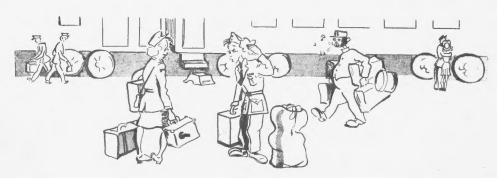

Canada's plan for the re-establishment of her ex-service men and women is the most all-embracing programme of legislation of any of the United Nations today. It is completed and in operation now, and many of Canada's young ex-service men and women have been established firmly as a result of it.

The problem of re-establishment, however, needs much more than a programme of legislation. It needs a human administration, and it needs co-operation on the part of serving men and serving women.

There is a third agency, also, which must play a great part in the reintegration into civilian life of our young men and women in uniform. This is the community from which they enlisted. The community must show them that the sacrifices which they have made are appreciated. It must reabsorb them into the churches, and provide them with an opportunity for jobs and for homes. For these reasons, we, who are charged with the responsibility of returning to civilian occupations those who have served, place great emphasis on the part which the community can play.

This booklet shows that the citizens of Edmonton have accepted their responsibility.

Welcome . . from

PREMIER MANNING

VETERANS:

The people of Alberta, with heartfelt gratitude to God for your return, joyfully welcome you home.

Since you went away, we have not been content alone to think wishfully of you. We have mingled, with our prayers, energetic action to prepare for your homecoming.

The Government of Alberta has established a Veterans' Welfare Commission, whose personnel and duties in your behalf are explained elsewhere in this booklet. Consult with this commission on all of your problems which come within its jurisdiction. It is there to serve you. Use it.

With the same spirit of loyalty in which you have finished your part of the "big job" in our behalf, the people of Alberta now hope to help you-to make Alberta a province of happiness and prosperity for you and yours, throughout all the coming years.

> ERNEST C. MANNING, Premier of Alberta.

EDMONTON

Needs YOU...

A MESSAGE FROM MAYOR FRY

ta

EX-SERVICEMEN AND EX-SERVICE WOMEN

On behalf of the City of Edmonton, I extend a most hearty welcome on your return from service in the forces.

Our citizens have followed with pride the exploits of you who have served on the ocean, in the air and on the land. We have seen our Navy expand from small beginnings, until it is now a formidable force. We have seen the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan fit many thousands of our young men to play such a splendid part in winning supremacy in the air; and have noted the splendid achievements of our land armies from El Alemain to the gates of Germany, and beyond.

You have done your part in saving our free-nnings,

dom, and we hope that we on the home front will not fail in our duty towards you.

We hope that the Citizens' Rehabilitation Committee—among other agencies—may be of service to you in the problems that you will face on your return to civilian life.

> JOHN W. FRY, Mayor of Edmonton.

THE Redwood Building

CENTRE OF ADMINISTRATION

REHABILITATION OF VETERANS

The motivating spirit of this booklet is to suggest to you reliable contacts in the business, social and religious circles of Edmonton. Situated in the building, shown above, are many of the offices which have been established to be at your service.

Here is what we want to do for you!

In welcoming you to Edmonton, the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council is anxious to make this a practical welcome—by assisting you to successfully take up again, your place in the community.

There are three factors necessary to successful rehabilitation . . . your own efforts, the help of Government Agencies and the help of the community.

The voluntary efforts of all phases of community life are co-ordinated through this Council.

This booklet is a guide, so that you can obtain information regarding Employment, Housing, Education, Vocational Training and Financial Guidance.

We hope that the information will be of value to you, and that you will feel free to consult the various agencies set up for your use.

Our office is in Room 111, The Redwood Building, Jasper Avenue and 113th Street. Our Secretary, Mr. Storm, will welcome your inquiries.

H. G. GREENWOOD, Chairman.

Women . . .

COMMITTEE FOR WOMEN IN UNIFORM

This committee is formed to render service to women returning to civilian life . . . from the Navy, Army and Air Force . . . so that each woman can make the transition as quickly as possible, into her own choice of vocational or educational field.

The Committee will supplement the assistance given by the government, with further service to each woman . . . through advice, and direction to those who can help her realize her wishes most quickly.

BRITISH WIVES OF SERVICEMEN

This Committee focuses endeavors on welcoming the brides of our fighting men, married overseas, who will make their homes here. All incoming trains, bringing these new arrivals, are met. A hearty welcome is extended, hospitality is offered and efforts made to secure accommodation for those requiring it. Contact is also made with social and religious bodies in the districts where these new citizens are to reside—so that they may be absorbed into community life quickly and happily.

VETERANS' LAND ACT COMMITTEE

This Committee has been set up for the purpose of studying the Veterans' Land Act... and acquiring full knowledge of it... in order to be qualified to deal with any matters referred to Council, pertaining to the settlement of veterans under the provisions of the Act.

The Committee also formulates ways and means so that the many benefits of the Act can be brought to the attention of veterans who desire to take advantage of this form of re-establishment.

Veterans are requested to get in touch with Council or the Chairman if assistance is required.

Chairman, N. S. McGUIRE, 10418 101st Street, Phone 26222

EDMONTON KIWANIS CLUB Committee Re Disabled Veterans

The Kiwanis Club...a group of 150 business and professional men... are ready to assist disabled veterans. Working in close co-operation with the Casualty Rehabilitation Officer... these men take individual amputation or casualty cases—and try to assist with that extra little boost that can help in returning to civilian life.

AFTER DISCHARGE ... What?

A PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS

You should immediately report to the Downtown Rehabilitation Centre, Redwood Building, 11250 Jasper Avenue. You will find a staff established to render all possible service in your rehabilitation . . . fully qualified to give advice and direction, as to the best means to take advantage of the various measures, which have been enacted to assist you in becoming permanently reestablished.

Here, you will also obtain all information regarding the provisions of the Post-Discharge Re-establishment Order — such as Unemployment Benefits, Vocational Training opportunities, Benefits while awaiting Returns from a privately-owned enterprise, and advice with regard to the opportunity of continuing your education at the University level . . . and all other benefits covered by this Order.

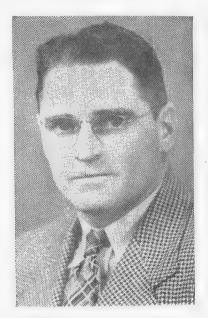

If you are returning to your former employment, you should report to the Veterans' Section of the National Selective Service, 10019 101A Avenue. Here you will obtain advice as to the Compulsory Reinstatement in Civil Employment Act, and pertinent information regarding your standing in your former position. If you desire to branch into a new field, they are in a position to acquaint you with opportunities of employment. There is also a close liaison maintained between the Department of Veterans' Affairs and the National Selective Service, Employment Branch.

All seriously handicapped discharged personnel are interviewed by Casualty Rehabilitation Officers—before leaving hospital—and every effort is made to assist them in adjusting themselves to the routine of civilian life.

The Veterans' Welfare Officer is an advisory and informational officer in the Department of Veterans' Affairs working in close co-operation with the officials responsible for the functioning of the Armed Forces Registration Unit, particularly with reference to the handicap and problem type of case. He may receive applications for out-of-work benefits and refer these applications to the Secretary of the Rehabilitation Board for implementation along with relevant information available. Applicants for other benefits will be referred to the proper officials of the District Rehabilitation Centre. He is a member of the Rehabilitation Board as the "soldier's friend". He is the liaison between the Citizens' Committees established throughout the province to assist in the rehabilitation of discharged personnel in their respective communities. The Veterans' Welfare Officer and staff are prepared to render all possible assistance to a veteran on request.

Welfare Officer, W. R. McLAREN, 10019 101A Avenue, Phone 27191

Veterans' Affairs

The Department of Veterans' affairs stands ready to assist those who served their country so well in this hour of need. That is the purpose and the duty of this Department and also the ultimate desire of each and every member of the staff. It is the desire of the Department of Veterans' Affairs that our veterans make this particular department, now located in the Redwood Building, Jasper Avenue at 113th Street, in Edmonton, their particular headquarters pertaining to all matters affecting our veterans.

D. E. MOULD,
District Superintendent of Rehabilitation,
District I,
Phone 29281

Vocational Training

Vocational Training of Ex-Service personnel is carried on by the Canadian Vocational Training (Department of Labor) for all persons referred to it by the Rehabilitation Boards. This training may be in private or public institutions, in special centres or in industry (on the job). Training is available for any type of occupation which offers some assurance of employment after training. Agricultural training (other than on farms) under Veterans' Land Act, and otherwise, is included in this programme.

The purpose of vocational training is to enable the Ex-Service person to enter an occupation at a wage level which will allow him to support himself and dependents adequately . . . or to enable a person re-entering a former occupation to prepare himself for promotion. Vocational training is available to men and women on an equal basis.

Training centres will be operated at these Alberta points: Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge, Medicine Hat and Grande Prairie.

J. H. ROSS, B.Sc., M.E.I.C., Regional Director, Canadian Vocational Director Calgary, Alberta. (Edmonton School, Phone 22875)

CANADIAN PENSION COMMISSION

When a member of the Canadian Army (Active), is discharged from the forces for medical reasons, he or she is asked to report within thirty days to the Department of Veterans' Affairs—at the District Office nearest his or her home. This is to determine whether or not the ex-member of the forces would benefit by further treatment or hospitalization. If the ex-member of the forces is given further treatment or hospitalization, his or her pension medical board is delayed until the completion of same. If no further treatment is indicated, the discharged man or woman is given a pension medical board—and a recommendation made as to the percentage of disability. The medical documents in both cases are forwarded by the district Pension Medical Examiner, to the Canadian Pension Commission.

The Canadian Pension Commission makes a pension ruling, on every person discharged from the Active Forces, without an application being made by the exmember of the forces.

An award of pension is based on the percentage of disability, and whether or not the injury or disease (or aggravation thereof) was attributable to, or was incurred, during such military service. The award is made in accordance with the rates set out by the provisions of the Canadian Pension Act.

Should the ex-member of the Active Forces be dissatisfied with the first ruling of the Canadian Pension Commission, he or she may apply to the nearest District Office for further consideration.

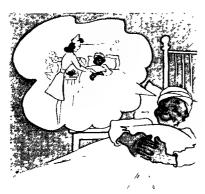

Where service has been in Canada only, the Commission has discretionary power to grant awards in cases in which pension is not awardable as of right—provided the injury or disease (or the aggravation thereof) resulting in serious disability or death, was incurred during service and the applicant is in necessitous circumstances. In such cases, the rate of pension may vary in accordance with the applicant's civilian financial circumstances.

Pension Medical Examiner, C. E. ANDERSON, M.D., Redwood Building, Phone 29281

Medical Treatment

OF EX-ACTIVE PERSONNEL

(DISCHARGED FROM PRESENT WAR)

The Department of Veterans' Affairs provides medical treatment of ex-servicemen under two separate classes.

Men who are discharged for medical reasons, and whose medical treatment has not been completed before discharge from the forces, are referred to this Department. If the patient is transferred directly to the D.V.A. Hospital, or reports to such institution within thirty days of his discharge, he is treated as a CLASS 2. As well as being provided with free treatment, and hospitalization until no further treatment is indicated, the CLASS 2 patient is paid an allowance equal to his pay and allowances while in the Active Forces—including dependents' allowance. This may be carried on for one year, and, if he is pensioned for the condition for which he is being treated, can be extended to two years—in special cases, longer. If, during the course of his treatment, the Medical Officer recommends that he be discharged from hospital—and treated as an out-patient—he gets an additional subsistance allowance of $1.25 per day, plus transportation to and from his home.

It might be pointed out that the best medical and surgical skill available is provided, to carry out the required treatment—and no expense is spared if consultations outside of the Department are indicated. Amputation cases are also under this class, during the period of limb fitting and until reasonable time has elapsed to enable the patient to become adjusted to his prosthetic appliance.

If the ex-serviceman applies for treatment after the thirty days have elapsed and within one year of his discharge from the Forces he is treated under Class 3. This class provides treatment for almost any medical condition whether it began before or after his discharge from the Forces. He also receives specified allowances which—though not so liberal as the CLASS 2 allowance—is fairly substantial. He also may be carried as an out-patient, but does not get the additional subsistence allowance granted to the CLASS 2. This year of CLASS 3 treatment also applies to ex-servicemen after their CLASS 2 treatment is completed—and dates from their discharge from CLASS 2 treatment, rather than discharge from the Forces.

CLASS 1 treatment is treatment of a disability for which the ex-serviceman has had entitlement to pension. During this treatment, which is for his pensionable disability only, his allowance is equal to 100% pension—both as a hospital case and as out-patient less $15.00 maintenance.

It should be pointed out that CLASS 1 treatment and CLASS 3 treatment are provided on application—and in Departmental institutions only—unless in cases of unusual emergency. The man is not entitled to seek private medical care, and expect to be reimbursed by the Department. The onus of contacting the Department is on the man.

Homes and Farms Like These . . .

May Be Yours Through The THE VETERANS' LAND ACT!

THE VETERANS' LAND ACT

The Veterans' Land Act (1942) provides for the establishment, and financial assistance, for full-time farming—to those veterans with background and experience in the agricultural industry. It also provides for establishments on small holdings—in suburban, semi-rural or rural areas on limited acreage—located close to industrial, commercial or other employment, from which the veteran will derive his main income.

For administrative purposes, a policy of decentralization is followed with the District Office for the Province, located in Edmonton. Leading off from this are Regional Offices, conveniently located throughout the Province. The Regional Office is the veterans' point of contact. The present staff are veterans of the last war and this present war. They are competent men... with practical experience in land settlement... with an appreciation of the veteran's point of view... ready at all times to discuss and advise the discharged veterans, regarding their problems as related to the provisions of the Act.

VETERANS' WELFARE AND ADVISORY COMMISSION PROVINCE OF ALBERTA

DUTIES OF THE COMMISSION:

- (1) To examine and study all Acts and Regulations which may from time to time be passed by the Parliament or Government of the Dominion of Canada relating to the welfare and rehabilitation of members of His Majesty's forces—and of the dependents of members of His Majesty's forces, still absent on active service—and the dependents of deceased members—and to keep the Minister of Public Welfare, of Alberta, advised of the contents and effect thereof;
- (2) To act in an advisory capacity to returned members of His Majesty's forces—and the dependents of members of His Majesty's forces still absent on active service—and of deceased members;
- (3) To advise the Minister on all matters pertaining to the welfare of members of His Majesty's forces and dependents of men still absent on active service—and of deceased members . . . and to make recommendations to the Minister with respect thereof;
- (4) To carry out investigations and to examine any proposals or schemes put forward, which may benefit returned members of His Majesty's forces, or their dependents, or the dependents of deceased members . . . and report thereon to the Minister;
- (5) To assist in the co-ordination of the work done by the various civilian organizations in the Province for the rehabilitation and return to civilian life, of members of His Majesty's forces.

VETERANS OF ALL BRANCHES OF THE SERVICE, AND THEIR DEPENDENTS, ARE URGED TO CONTACT THE COMMISSION ON PROBLEMS COMING UNDER ITS SCOPE.

WAR SERVICES COUNCIL of NORTHERN ALBERTA

The War Services Council of Northern Alberta is an official body, established by the Department of National War Services, to co-ordinate and initiate voluntary war work—falling within the jurisdiction of that Department, in Alberta from Red Deer north.

It is commissioned, also, by the Minister of Veterans' Affairs . . . to co-ordinate all rehabilitation efforts in this area. For this purpose, it maintains a Rehabilitation Section, whose chairman is always the nominee of the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council—and whose members are composed of representatives from all voluntary agencies engaged in rehabilitation work.

The War Services Council is responsible for the administration of the War Charities Act—collection of Salvage—origination of entertainment for the services—co-ordination of hospital visiting—collection and distribution of magazines to the forces.

The War Services Council is affiliated with the Citizens' Volunteer Bureau, Allied Arts Council, the Council of Social Agencies—and has established the Salvation Army Hostel on 98th Street.

Information will be gladly given to returned men and women.

Chairman, HAROLD WEIR, 10639 Jasper Avenue, Phone 28016

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA

President Newton Welcomes You . . .

As President of our Provincial University, I have very great pleasure in adding my welcome to the men and women now returning to civilian life, after the years devoted to service in the armed forces of the Dominion. For man, the path to a happy, successful future leads now to the University—as the gateway to the careers that await them.

Our University is proud to co-operate with the Dominion Government in the task of educational rehabilitation—and will give a warm welcome to those who come to it, to begin or to resume study.

Many, no doubt, will find it hard to resume study . . . but the maturity of those who have seen service, their wide experience, and the will to succeed are assets of great value.

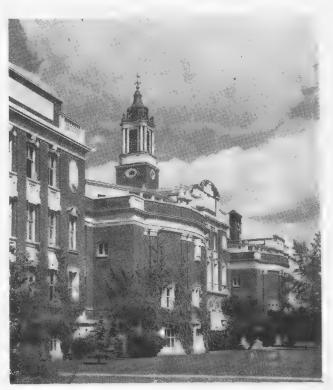

The University of Alberta will give every possible encouragement and help to new or returning students—coming from the Services. It is my earnest hope that a number of men and women will be enabled to establish themselves—with the generous aid provided by the Dominion's scheme for educational rehabilitation—in the professions and callings for which a University training is required.

R. NEWTON, President.

UNIVERSITY COMMITTEE ON STUDENT REHABILITATION

The University has set up a Committee on Student Rehabilitation, and prospective students are asked to communicate with the Secretary of this Committee, for information as to eligibility to enter the University. As a time limit is set, intending students should not delay in ascertaining their eligibility to enter the desired course. The University Committee will welcome the opportunity to meet and advise any returned member of the forces.

Secretary, of Agriculture

For many years, experiments have been in progress at the University, dealing with a variety of agricultural problems. The results of these experiments will be found in a series of leaflets—bulletins—and circulars—obtainable from the University Department of Extension.

You are cordially invited, not only to consult printed reports... but to visit the Agricultural Departments at the University... to discuss your individual problems with members of the staff... and to see experimental work in progress. You will find interesting results in poultry, agricultural engineering, field crops, soils and horticulture.

The Faculty of Agriculture hopes you will find for yourself what the University can do in the way of friendly help and advice.

R. D. SINCLAIR, Dean of Agriculture.

of Extension

Through its Department of Extension, the University provides a wide variety of services. As an indication, the following may be named:

Bulletin service on agricultural subjects; information on farm and community problems; study group courses on topics of current interest; Package libraries for debates or discussion; travelling lectures; individual library service and travelling libraries for community use; film and film slide service for schools and communities.

Every year, many schools—short courses—and conferences are arranged . . . either at the University, or in the various communities. Among these are Community Life Conferences; combining education, recreation and social intercourse. Leadership schools are conducted in such fields as drama and art, co-operation, current affairs and community organization.

In June, there is a Farm Young People's Week at the University, which has been flourishing for more than 27 years. The Banff School of Fine Arts provides, in August, a month of courses in drama, art, applied art, and oral French. Throughout the year, many short courses are provided for special groups.

Ex-service men and women, who are to settle in our communities, are urged to associate themselves with the groups that exist—to promote the welfare of community life.

CANADIAN LEGION

H. E. TANNER PRESIDENT

Ever since the formation of the Legion, a free service has been provided to war veterans, and their dependents, covering problems of every description—adjustment of pensions, treatment, re-establishment, employment, rights of dependents and, indeed, any matter relating to veterans' post-war rights and benefits. Veterans of this, and the last war are entitled to this tree service—whether or not they are members of the Legion. Past records prove how effective the work of the Legion has been . . . also, how closely in their main features the post-discharge problems of ex-Service personnel of both wars are related. This is why the Legion can render effective service to members of the armed forces of this war—before and after they become veterans.

WAR AMPUTATIONS OF CANADA

. . . by G. P. HEAD, PRESIDENT

We, of the Edmonton Branch WAR AMPUTATIONS OF CANADA, are proud to convey to all Amputation cases of this war a very sincere welcome on their return to their homeland. May we say that we are an organization of some 3,000 soldiers who lost limbs during the last War—and it is our hope that we may be able to assist young men, suffering similar disabilities, with their problems while going through the period of reestablishment.

We have, in the ranks of the Amputations Association, many men who, through sheer determination, have placed themselves in positions which have led to happy, secure lives. These men are willing to help with advice and effort, so that their sincere hope for our young Comrades may be realized.

ARMY AND NAVY VETERANS

Upon the outbreak of the present war, the Army and Navy Veterans was at once found ready to play the part expected of such a great organization. Members everywhere offered their services in whatever capacity they could be utilized, and large numbers are again in uniform. Much has been done—and more will be done—to assist our boys, the younger generation upon whom must fall the brunt of the burden in this, the greatest of all conflicts. Our club rooms have been opened to them across the Dominion . . . and in many ways, we are playing the "elder brother" to these boys.

The full force of the organization is behind the Empire's "Win the War" efforts . . . and we hope that you, the returned man, will take full advantage of our services.

H. D. LYNN, President, Edmonton Unit, 10027 Jasper Avenue, Phone 24353

CANADIAN INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND

When the men who lost their sight in the last war returned to Canada, there was no organization for the blind. Those who have the same misfortune in THIS WAR, are not as unfortunate. The Canadian National Institute for the Blind, under the capable direction of Colonel E. A. Baker—who lost his sight in the last war—stand ready to serve.

Baker Hall, donated by Lady Kemp, is a very comfortable residence for the warblinded, while they are receiving preliminary and advanced training in Toronto. Several men, who lost their sight in this war, have received training and are already working.

Every citizen will play a part in helping the war-blinded to resume normal activity in community life. The blinded veteran is anxious to do his part, if given the opportunity . . . and the Canadian National Institute for the Blind is just as anxious to assist in the necessary preparation.

HOWARDA. WILLSON, Executive Officer, Northern Alberta Branch, Court House Phone 26363

THE CANADIAN RED CROSS SOCIETY

In the rehabilitation of ex-servicemen, the Canadian Red Cross stands ready to render service. It is recognized that "the best laid schemes of—men gang aft agley"... that emergencies arise... that unexpected rsponsibilities fall upon the individual... demanding attention that official authorities may not be able to give quickly enough. It is in such emergent circumstances that Red Cross is at the service of the ex-serviceman and his family—with sympathetic, human and practical aid.

This aid is as near as the nearest Red Cross Branch.

Secretary-Manager, ROBERT MUIR, 606 Tegler Building, Phone 22946

THE SALVATION ARMY CANADIAN WAR SERVICES

The Salvation Army has initiated certain plans which include returning servicemen, and looking after wives and children. Overnight accommodation will be provided where necessary. Giving all co-operation possible, with Organizations set up in local districts, this service will assist on committees . . . help to rebuild broken homes . . . aid in domestic, financial, physical and spiritual difficulties.

The Salvation Army will work to make returning members of the Forces as comfortable and happy as possible.

A Message from the Aldermen of the City of Edmonton

As representative of the City Council, on the Executive Committee of the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council, I would like to convey to you the assurance—on behalf of my colleagues on the City Council, and myself—that we shall endeavor to give you our whole-hearted support in any problems which confront you, coming under the scope of our activities.

A number of our Aldermen are returned men from the last war... they are familiar with the difficulties that have to be overcome by ex-soldiers. These Aldermen stand ready for your inquiries.

May I express the hope that you will give the same serious thought and effort, to proving yourselves efficient citizens of Edmonton, that you gave to proving proficient fighting men from Edmonton.

Alderman FRED J. MITCHELL.
